

A

he changes to the Building Regulations Approved Document E in 2003 brought schools under its umbrella for the first time. Schools are now required to be designed to the standards articulated in Building Bulletin 93. This is a comprehensive document that is much bigger than Approved

A